SUPPORTING CONVERSATION

Supporting Conversation

You can support your relative/ friend in conversation by thinking about how you communicate.

There are lots of ways to communicate:

- Speaking
- Writing
- Gesture
- Facial expression
- Pointing to pictures, photo and objects

Getting your message across

Your relative may struggle to understand everything you are saying. Try to:

- Use short, simple sentences
- Talk about one thing at a time
- Use photographs and pictures
- Give them time to think about what you have said
- Write down key words and use drawings

Understanding what your relative is saying

- Focus on what they are telling you not how they are saying it
- Give them lots of time
- Recap what they have said to check you are on the right lines
- Ask them to show you what they mean using pictures and photos
- Ask if they would like you to guess
- It is ok to give up and come back to it later if you really don't understand.
